

Composition of functions

2 functions can be combined, which are called composite functions.

$fg(x)$ is f of g of x , where $g(x)$ must be performed first, then f .

The range of $g(x)$ must be included in the domain of f , or else the composite function cannot be formed.